

Hottest Restaurants in San Francisco

A DUO OF GLAMOROUS MID-MARKET NEWCOMERS AND A TRIO OF EDGY KOREAN SPOTS

November 10, 2017 · by Zagat Staff

Are you always searching for the hottest new tables in San Francisco's rapidly changing restaurant scene? Stay up to date with our monthly shortlist on the city's top recently opened spots. From innovative sushi and tapas in Hayes Valley to a pair of Mid-Market additions with equally noteworthy food and sleek settings — plus a revamped Dogpatch favorite that is as popular as ever — here are SF's 11 hottest restaurants.

VILLON

American · Civic Center · $$$

 ZAGAT RATED

Tucked in Mid-Market's San Francisco Proper Hotel, this chic dining room and lounge offers New American cuisine from former James Beard nominee Jason Franey, with cocktails by The Bon Vivants (Trick Dog).

Must-order: Gnudi with chanterelle mushrooms and sunchoke fondue; tuna tartare on chicken skin; Grand Prix cocktail with Campari, grapefruit and cold brew coffee

Insider tip: Don't miss the new, spectacular rooftop bar and patio (with a separate menu and sweeping views of Market Street and the FiDi).