The Castro

Located only a short walk from San Francisco Proper, The Castro is likely the most iconic LGBTQ focused neighborhood in America! Home to a rich history of LGBTQ rights movements, The Castro is a delightful neighborhood to enjoy great dining options, take in a flick at the historical Castro Theater or enjoy mural after mural, including a Harvey Milk piece commemorating his life and legacy.

Mission

Home to a 1776-built Mission Dolores, The Mission has something for everyone! It is rooted in rich Latino History yet provides a new age hipster vibe with some recent development of boutique lined 17th and Valencia streets! Some of the best taquerias in the world make home in the Mission so be sure to grab an authentic taco, maybe catch a flick at Foreign Cinema while enjoying some crafted cocktails and enjoy sunset at Mission Dolores Park!

Presidio

A 1,500 acre park full of rich history, The Presidio is home to a former military post and provides an abundant amount of attractions and absolutely breath taking views of Golden Gate Bridge and the Pacific Ocean. Enjoy a visit to one of a few select earth works artist, Andy Goldsworthy's pieces, sandy Baker Beach or Walt Disney Family Museum! If you enjoy cycling, The Presidio provides some vigorous inclines sure to serve you with a great work out in an inspirational environment.

Marina Green

Enjoy a scenic stroll through San Francisco's north shore at Marina Green. Catch a Philz coffee early in the morning and watch the fog roll over and off Golden Gate Bridge and Alcatraz. Delight in a multitude of outdoor restaurants and bars and wrap your afternoon at San Francisco's Palace of Fine Arts.

Fisherman's Wharf

Well known for fresh caught daily seafood, a seal sighting and an abundant amount of souvenir shops, Fisherman's Wharf is a San Francisco must! Be sure to visit early and soak up a beautiful sunrise before the crowds get too large!

Golden Gate Park

Over 1000 acres of pure outdoor joy, Golden Gate Park provides multiple days worth of adventures. Whether taking a hike to a hidden waterfall, viewing wild bison, taking a run in the park or delighting in all the wonders of the Japanese Tea Garden or Conservatory of Flowers, there is no short supply of awe inspiring moments to be had at Golden Gate Park.

Haight Ashbury

Home to the 1960s counterculture movement, Haight Ashbury is the optima of what visitors think of when they think Summer of Love. Featuring loads of vintage clothing boutiques, bookstores, dive bars, murals including a famous

Janis Joplin piece, Haight Ashbury sits to the east of Golden Gate's main entrance and provides lots of afternoon fun and people watching.

Hayes Valley

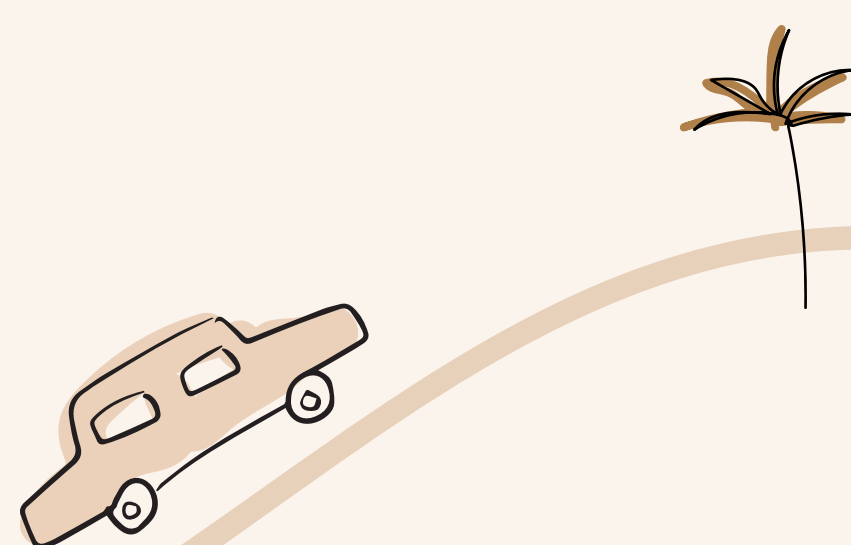

Neighboring San Francisco Proper, Hayes Valley, a newer neighborhood to San Francisco provides guests with an abundant array of delicious dining options and shopping! Be sure to take a few seconds to take a break at Patricia's Green, home to some pop up boutiques and rotating art exhibits.

North Beach

Get transported to Little Italy with Italian bakery and café lined streets and take in the very popular Telegraph Hill well known for parrot sightings, the Filbert Steps which offer a terrific hike to Coit Tower where you can take in sweeping panoramic views of San Francisco! If a day full of decadent food, drink and rich history are part of your agenda, North Beach is a must visit.

Chinatown

Rooted in so much history, San Francisco boasts one of American's first Chinatowns! Spend a full day exploring historical sites that share some rich history into the development of San Francisco, take in the iconic and world renowned Dragon's Gate, get lost in a maze of narrow streets and alleys that are lined with eateries, herbalists, bakeries, souvenir shops and well known cocktail lounges.
